THE MEMOIR
Manchester High School
Richmond, Virginia

To the Alumni,

Since you have left dear MHS, we have made many improvements and changes. New activities and clubs have been added. With our ever-increasing enrollment, the teaching staff has also been increased.

You will notice that the arrangement of sections is different from that in former annuals. Activities have been placed first, because we feel that, although Seniors are important to all students at Manchester, we would not be justified in placing them first. In the 1954 Memoir we are attempting to serve the whole school.

In the pages of this book we hope to bring back to you memories of your happy days of school. We shall also endeavor to preserve these memories for ourselves,—

the CLASS of '54

Best of luck!..

FOREWORD

This is the 19th Memoir. Since this year's book is a report to the alumni, we have used the word alumni to introduce each section. We believe that all those who love Manchester will be proud of her progress.

ACTIVITIES

Many of you alumni may remember when we had only a few clubs at MHS, but you will see 15 clubs and organizations pictured in the Activities Division.

Irby Brown, business manager of the Memoir in '50, visits the school and chats with Joyce Garner, president of Quill and Scroll; Alice Powell, president of Y-Teen; Jimmy Grow, editor of the Communique and Manchester's representative on the Youth Page of the Richmond News Leader; and Delano Driver, president of Hi-Y.

Irby was editor of the Webb at The University of Richmond in '53. This year he is the Board of Publications representative to the Student Government at the University. Also Irby is one of the 17 students at the University listed in the '54 Who's Who in American Colleges.

Jimmy Grow, fourth from left, waged a colorful and winning presidential campaign for David Jolly.

The SCA Council is composed of thirty-seven members including the officers and council—homeroom representatives and activities heads.

The council holds monthly business meetings in which school problems and projects are discussed.

Once a month, assembly meetings for the entire high school are held in the auditorium, presided over by the president. Varied programs are presented.

This year the SCA Council undertook a number of projects. First they sponsored the operetta given by the music department. Members of the council took charge of the publicity and sold tickets and refreshments at the two performances.

Next, members of the Council purchased SCA sweaters which they decided to wear once a week. Organization of a safety patrol was next on the list of projects. This completed, they began plans for a parking lot to be built behind the school. The council expects to put the plans for the parking lot into effect this fall.

Mr. Willard Kaempf, sponsor, points out the proposed parking area.

Everette Phillips pins a safety patrol badge on Joe Carmine while Jeanette White, Thelma Bowman and Alice Powell look on.

New-Style Cover, Content Rearrangement, Increased Size, Produce Unusual Memoir

Betty Anne Siegfried and Clara Hudson, Co-editors, review an old annual as they discuss plans for the '54 Memoir.

The 1954 Memoir staff was chosen in May of last year. The members were selected from a large number of applicants from the Junior Class. Each member selected was required to sell $10 in ads.

This year for the first time, a representative from each of the lower classes was admitted to the staff. They helped the Senior members of the staff in various types of work.

The staff, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Morris, sponsor, began work on the Memoir last May.

Betsy Rice, assistant club editor, and Janis Brubeck, feature editor, trim pictures to be used.

Joyce Rogers and Billy Carter, sports editors, examine football pictures.

All of the subscriptions and payments are handled by Mary Cal and Bertha Garrett, circulation managers.

Class representatives helped in identifying pictures. They are: Judy Vantrease, Mary K. King, James Morris and Myrtle Goins.

The early start made it possible for the 1954 staff to turn out a larger and better annual than ever before. The Memoir has been increased 40 pages over last year and changed to a hard-back cover with a picture of the school on the front. The circulation was also increased greatly over the previous years.

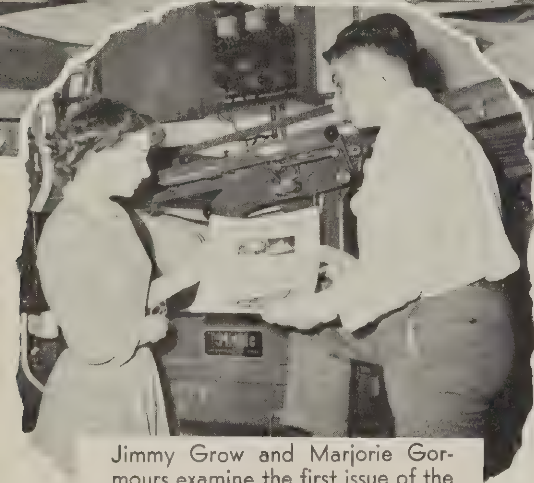
Following the example set last year, the key members of the 1954 staff selected the staff for next year.

Ryland Barden, Tony Zullig, Bobby Davis, and Elliott Schaubach, messengers, are on their way to sell ads.

Nancy Gill, secretary to the advisor, reads a letter she has just received while Frances Ann Whitt, copy editor, reads over some copy.

Joyce Lee Smith, assistant business manager, and Laura Lu Green, business manager, total the ads they have received.

Peggy Grubb, business manager, and Mrs. Marie Morris, sponsor, listen to Jimmy Grow, editor-in-chief, as he comments on the first printed Communique. Marjorie Gormours, copy editor, waits her turn to suggest improvements.



Jimmy Grow and Marjorie Gormours examine the first issue of the printed Communique as it comes off the press.

The Communique

The Communique, which as a mimeograph paper won two trophies at SIPA, began a printed paper this year. The increase in subscriptions proved that the students felt the printed paper is an improvement over the mimeograph paper which they had had for 16 years.

Members of the Communique, in Journalism Class, working on the next issue of the paper: Joyce Rogers, Larry Tingle, Royal Inge, Jackie Maxey, Joyce Manning, Jane Staples, Joyce Lester, Joanna Enroughty and Blanche Clarke.

At the end of the subscription campaign, a "Coke" party was held in the cafeteria for the Communique staff, and the two senior homerooms which had 100 per cent subscribers to the Communique. A photographer from the Richmond News Leader took pictures of the affair which appeared, together with a write-up on the Youth Page.

Clara Hudson, reporter, shows the new Communique to Mrs. Helen Smith, elementry advisor, and Nancy Brigman and Sandra Britton, elementary reporters.

Jennie Lemmon stops her typing on the paper long enough for her picture to be made while Shirley Southerland checks over the typed material. Geraldine Krimm, Shirley Snead, Mildred Belcher, Joyce Gordon and Peggy Ragland decide the best way to write their articles.

The Glee Club Is Selected

The Glee Club this year consists of approximately forty voices chosen from the members of the three choral classes by Director William Troxell.

Members of the Glee Club composed the majority of the cast for the "Pirates of Penzance," given early in December. They also participated in the Spring Music Festival, on March 20 and sent representatives to the Eastern All-State Chorus.

In addition to appearances outside of school, the Glee Club sang for the student body at assembly meetings. They also sang at commencement.

From The Three Choral Groups

Members of the Glee Club are: First row: Janet Collinson, Gwen Nichols, Joyce Savedge, Clara Hudson, Marion Lines, Clay Wheless, Ellis Putney, Gail Pettway, Jeanette White, Joanne Williams, Jackie Thompson. Second row: Barbara Cooke, Jean Creery, Jane Creery, Betty Gay Byer, Betty Lou White, Faye Whitt, Jamerson Moore, Frederick Harding, Leon Long, James Morris, Frank Dolezal, Jack Winn, Shirley O'Berry, Camellia Carnes, Margaret Llewellyn, Carol Ragland, Frances Pruden, Janet Condrey, Jean Pemberton. Third row: Eileen Longest, Sandra Bartlam, Sylvia Andorfer, Jimmy Davis, Branch Hancock, Aubrey Smith, Donald Ellington, Clifford Carnes, Bruce Bartlam, Wilson Little, Sandra Hainley, Carol Ann Wood.

The six members who were representatives to the All-Eastern are: Camellia Carnes, Joyce Savedge, Clara Hudson, Clay Wheless, Leon Long and Jack Winn.

MHS Band for Games

Starting in July the band practiced weekly for their rigorous fall schedule. The Ruritan Club invited the band to participate in Fourth of July festivities at Chesterfield Court House.

During the football season they played at eight games, including the annual Thanksgiving game with Thomas Dale and accepted a bid to the annual Peanut Bowl Festival where the Lancers played Suffolk.

The band, also, was invited to perform at the Kickoff Dinner for the 1953 Community Chest Fund Drive.

A busy November schedule included invitations to play at Randolph-Macon College Homecoming in Ashland and for the Thalhimers' Christmas Toy Parade.

Also, November found the band in concert in the high school auditorium for benefit of the Band Boosters Club. More than $4,000 was raised in the campaign which was to buy new uniforms for the group.

The new uniforms have royal blue jackets trimmed in orange with citation cord, worn over white trousers. A blue hat with gold emblem, blue knit tie, white sash and white shoes complete the ensemble.

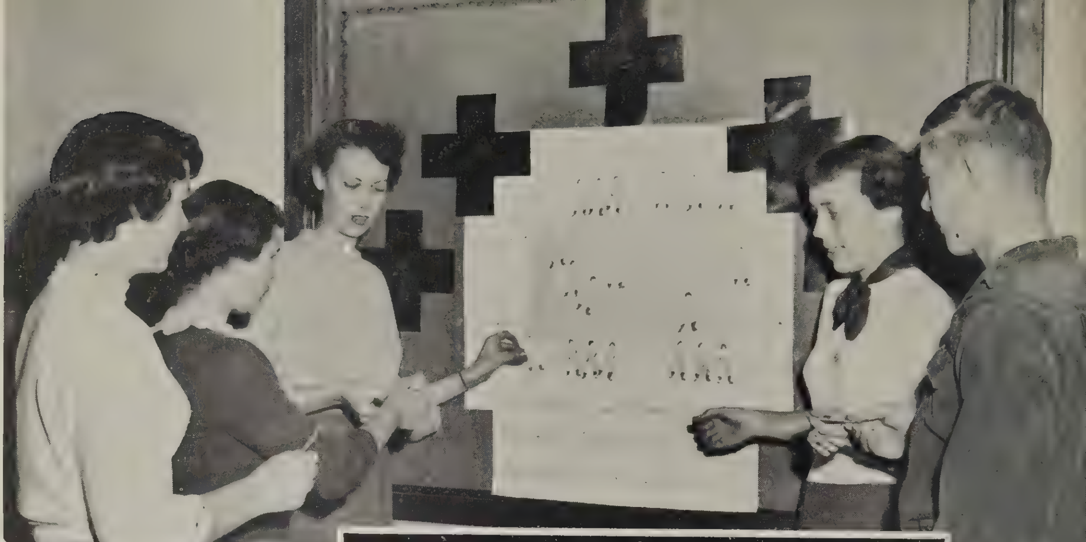
Red Cross Promotes International Friendship



Jackie Fennell, vice-president; Mary K. King, secretary; Mrs. Frances Hoffman, sponsor; Laura Lu Green, president; and Edward Craze, treasurer, put the finishing touches on a poster which shows the results of the Red Cross drive.

Performing useful services to its school and community the American Junior Red Cross has centered its activities for the year around the veterans administration Hospital in Chesterfield County. At Christmas time each homeroom in school filled stockings for the fellows and all during the year articles to be used by them in hand craft were collected by the Council. They also sent money to the National American Red Cross to be used for aid to disaster victims. The duties of the Manchester Junior Red Cross have been to carry out the purpose of service to mankind for which it was established.

Members of the Red Cross Council are: Ann Bosley, Juanita Leighty, Donna Shaw, Frances Turner, Edith Millington, Hilda Gowen, Kitty Harris, Mary Anne Warren, Nora Norman, Mary McCoy, Priscilla Ihlenfeld, Nancy Campbell, Thomas Jenkins, Margaret Heath, Dale Snow, John Waldrop, Janet Chase, David Robertson, Russell Davis, Donald Moore, Delano Driver and Shirley Snead, reporter. Quill and Scroll Receives Charter

Joyce Garner, president; Joyce Lee Smith; Marjorie Gormours, secy.-trea.; and Peggy Ragland, reporter, check the folder showing Quill and Scroll pins.

The Manchester chapter of the International Quill and Scroll Society was organized, with 14 members, in May of 1953. At the first meeting, last fall, they voted to name the club The Marie N. Morris Chapter, in honor of the sponsor and organizer.

The organization is for outstanding high school journalists. Requirements are: Members must be juniors or seniors in the upper third of their classes; must be recommended by the sponsor; and for the annual bring in $50 in ads or for the newspaper 100 inches in ads and reporting. After these requirements are met the students must be approved by the international officers.

Activities for the year included: Presentation of a Quill, Scroll medal for creative writing, participation by members in national writing contests; communication with alumni to interest them in school publications; one banquet and several parties. In addition, Jimmy Grow has been school editor for the Youth Page of the Richmond News Leader.

And, working with the journalism class, they played big brother to a boy in a corrective school.

Hi-Y and Promote Standards In School Home

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is "to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community clean standards and christian living."

This year the club is cooperating with the Y-Teen Club in taking charge of the morning devotions. They are also contributing service and money to the various charities of the area.

The club is composed of boys in or above the 9th grade who are willing to abide by the purpose of the organization.

LEADERS IN SPORTS

Manchester's athletic teams have been very successful in these past few years, as most of you alumni probably know.

The football team has won the district championship for the past three years, and the boy's basketball team has won the district championship for the last two years. In the last four years the baseball team has won the district championship twice. Although the track team has only started, their record is good.

The girl's hockey team has put players on the Allied B East Tournament team for three years and a few on the All-State first team.

The Lancers finished their season with no defeats to become Group 2, District II Champions for the third consecutive year. This is remarkable considering that they played such Group I teams as Lane and Petersburg.

The Lancers were led by the great running of Buddy Davis, Phil Stargardt and Gene Murrell and the fine ball-handling and passing of quarterback Nelson Yarbrough. This backfield averaged 194. Captain J. P. Vass and Bobby Brown caught Yarbrough's passes for many touchdowns and yardage. At tackles were Wayne Wilson, Elliot Schaubach and Larry Jones. At guards were Bob Priest, Dave Jolly, and Don Ross and Bill Carter at center.

Second Eleven, First Row: Clay Wheeless, Franklin Moore, Dave Jolly, Tom Graves, Noel Carden, Wayne Wilson, and Earl Yancy. Backfield: Tom Mays, Stuart Stargardt, George Whitaker, Tommy Davis.

Their line averaged close to 195 pounds. Not only did the Lancers have a swift running and great passing attack along with excellent blocking, but they had a rock-like defense which was superb throughout the season.

An example of the Lancers' power is, they scored 308 points and held the opposition to 31 points.

Coach Chuck Williams is the man, however, who is largely responsible for this great team for he has been building each year for four years and over a period of 3 years the Lances have won 26 games to only 3 defeats; reaching its peak this season.

Williams was assisted this year by Don Ford who has helped him for 4 years as line coach and P. K. Perrin who started coaching this year.

This team was a wrecking crew. A superb club that never let down. They had the one thing essential to a football team besides teamwork and determination and that was over-all "Power". They were perhaps the "greatest."

Lancers Bat Their Way to District Title

Manchester's Lancers fielded a championship team for the '53 season. They topped their winning streak by capturing the Group II, District 2 Baseball Championship. The Lancers' season totaled 10 wins and 2 losses. The only district loss, however, was to Midlothian team. The highlights and scores of each game are:

April 8—Murrell threw a three hitter at Varina for a 9-2 victory.
April 11—Murrell and Yarbrough combined talents to defeat Midlothian by 7-4.
April 14—Brewer knocked in the winning run as Manchester edged past Chester 5-4.
April 17—Murrell whiffed 15 batters as Lancers triumphed over Stafford 8-5.
April 18—Saints defeated Manchester with the help of 2 homers by a score of 8-5.
April 21—Lancers avenged the defeat of the Saints by triumphing over them in a slugfest 22-13.
April 24—Vass's 2 homers aid in Lancer's 16-4 mauling of Henry Clay.
April 28—Murrell stopped Varina with 6 hits as Lancers triumphed 11-6.
May 9—Midlothian handed Manchester its first league loss by 5-1.
May 12—Lancers mauled Ashland 21-3 as Weeks starred in relief.
May 13—Vass's clutch single sparked Manchester over Chester 6-5.
May 19—Davis hits 2 powerful homers as Lancers breeze by Stafford 4-2 to sew up the title.

Hockey Team's Season Near Perfect

The Manchester Lancerettes had a winning streak in '53, losing only one game, their first of the season with St. Gertrudes, 5-4. Manchester's winning games included: John Marshall 4-3; Hopewell 4-3; Westhampton Jr. High 3-0; and a tie with Thomas Jefferson 2-2. In the tournament games the Lancerettes defeated Petersburg 3-0 and Ashland 6-0. They tied St. Catherines 0-0. Five members were named to the Allied East team—Shirley Southerland, Gladys Norman, and Myrtle Goins on the first team, and Peggy Grubb and Joyce Rogers on the second team.

Miss Anita Hackett, coach, gives last minute instructions to the girls. They are: Kitty Harris, Evelyn Smith, Janet Chase, Elsie Snow, Sylvia Walsh, Mary K. Lancerettes Show Fair Results

The Lancerettes opened the season at Midlothian. They lost the game with a score of 14-10. The next opponent was Ashland. Manchester won with a score of 10-15.

Thomas Jefferson upset the Lancerettes at Tee Jay, by the score of 11-10 although Dixie Chandler knocked a home run, the first one of the season.

The Lancerettes traveled to Hopewell only to get turned back with a score of 8-4.

Chester was victorious over the Lancerettes by a score of 13-11.

However, Lancerettes showed that it wasn't a losing season by scoring 13-7 over John Marshall. Shirley Southerland knocked a home run. In a second game with John Marshall the score was tied 7-7. At the end of the seventh inning three extra innings were played, but the score was still tied 12-12.

Anita Hackett, coach said, "The girls never gave up, but they tried harder in the last three games than they did all season."

Each time the Lancers traveled so did the cheerleaders.

And once they traveled without the team. These girls were guests of the 14 member Randolph-Macon College cheer squad and helped the RM boys cheer at the Hampden-Sydney game.

Then there was the time the cheerleaders preceded the team to Suffolk. There they rode on a float in the Peanut Bowl Parade, a parade which was a part of Suffolk's homecoming celebration. They also cheered at the Peanut Bowl that night as the Lancers crushed Suffolk.

Holding pep meetings, placing posters on themselves as well as in the school buildings, planning and executing stunts at the games, were among the things the cheerleaders did—in addition to yelling—to increase school spirit.

UNUSUAL FEATURES

If you've been keeping up with the progress of the Memoir since your graduation, you know that a Feature Section was used for the first time last year.

This year we have pictured in this section unusual social events, athletic trips, scholastic awards and achievements and also the majorettes.

For events that concern only the seniors, look in the senior section.

We sincerely hope that this section will add to your enjoyment of the first Memoir to be published in honor of you—our alumni.

ROOM 201

Marjorie Gormours and Peggy Grubb file Communique copy.

A teacher from Brazil, Miss Mooma Albano, looks at the school newspaper after visiting an English class.

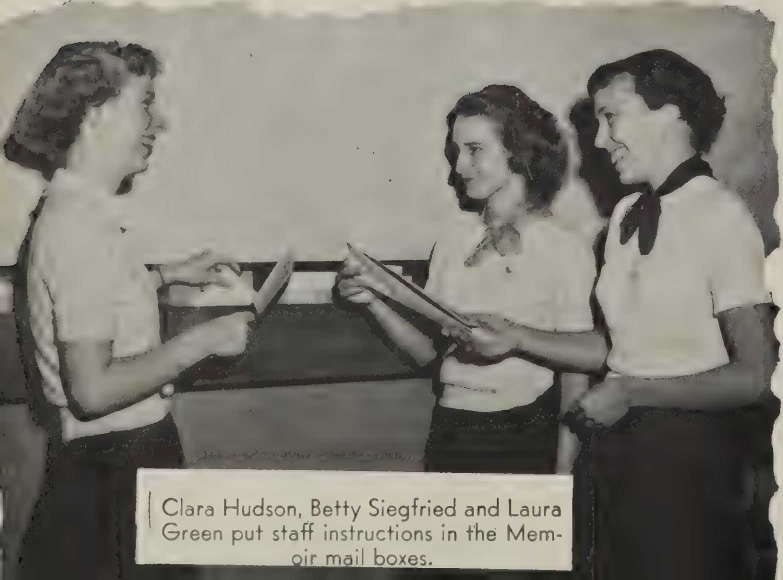
On the second floor one hears unusual sounds coming from behind an ordinary-looking, classroom door. It isn't though; it's Room 201.

Inside one might think he's in an Elizabethan museum, for he sees a model of the Globe theater where many of Shakespeare's plays were produced. He sees, also, the small television set on which only the play Macbeth is shown.

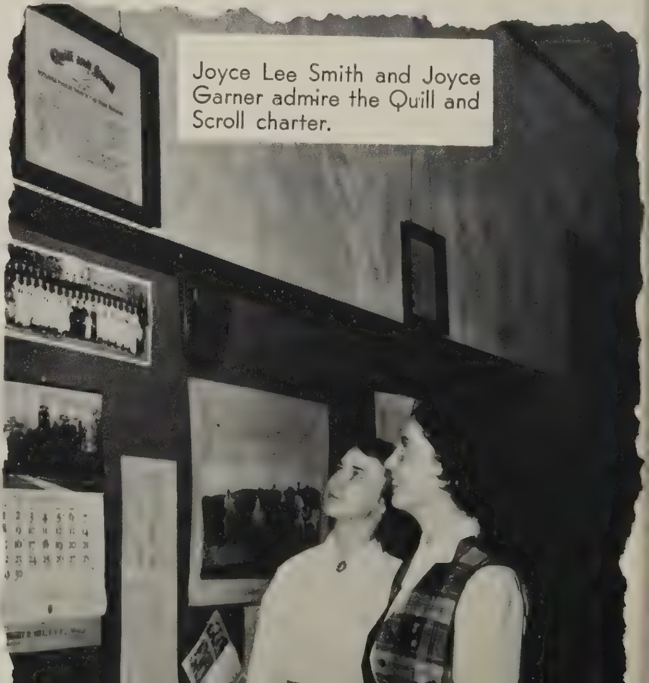
In one corner of the room there is a marionette stage which is used as a closet to hide all articles which are not in use but too valuable to throw away. There are files which would cause a neat secretary to have heart failure. A most unusual file is under the blotter on the teacher's desk.

Who works in this room? There is quite a collection of students, and the teacher is none other than Mrs. Marie Morris, sponsor of publications and teacher of two English classes and journalism. During the last two periods of the day come a steady stream of budding journalists, newspaper reporters, city editors and other writers.

But back to the room—among all the annoucements on the bulletin board is a picture of pilgrims on their way to Canterbury. This doesn't sound like an ideal place in which to work and study, but those who've been exposed to Room 201 will place it among happy memories.



Clara Hudson, Betty Siegfried and Laura Green put staff instructions in the Memoir mail boxes.



Joyce Lee Smith and Joyce Garner admire the Quill and Scroll charter.

Barn Dances Bring Fun To All

"Pirates of Penzance"

The Manchester choral groups presented "The Pirates of Penzance," an operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan, Friday and Saturday nights, December 4 and 5, 1953. The cast consisted of approximately 70 members, of which there were 10 leads. The money realized from this operetta was divided equally between the Music department and the SCA.

Joyce Savage alternates in the part of Mabel.

The three sisters and wards of the Major General are: Jeanette White, Kate, Clara Hudson, Edith and Joanne Williams, Isabel.

The story of the operetta centers around Frederick, who is apprenticed to a band of pirates. He falls in love with Mabel, whose father is a Major-General and objects to pirates as sons-in-law.

Frederick was played by Ned Stiles, a senior at Randolph-Macon College and captain of the RM football team.

"Get that ball" shout the spectators as a Chester player is about to pass.

"Chuck" Williams and his mighty Lancers continued the Thanksgiving tradition last fall to trample Thomas Dale's Knights 22-0. During the half, cheerleaders and MHS students mourned the "death" of the Knights. A coffin bearing the sign "Chester Gone But Not Forgotten" was carried around the gridiron by the pallbearers. Floral arrangement for the coffin was composed of turnip tops.

King, Queen Crowned Amid Apple Blossoms

"Apple Blossom Time," the theme of the 1953 prom, transformed the gymnasium into an apple orchard. One wall was covered entirely by apple trees, while all four walls were surrounded by a green picket fence. Pink and white streamers were draped from the centerpiece to the floor. The centerpiece, which hung from the ceiling, was filled with pink and white apple blossoms.

Apple blossoms were found at each table, and a sample of "Apple Blossom Time" perfume was given to each girl in the figure. The Rythemnaires furnished music for the approximately 400 guests.

During intermission, caterers, assisted by ninth grade waitresses, served punch and cookies to the guests. After this, the figure was led by Ryland Barden, Junior class secretary.

As a climax, Ryland crowned Jimmy Rogers and Fay Evans King and Queen of the prom. At the last strains of "Goodnight Sweetheart," the guests departed to complete a perfect evening.

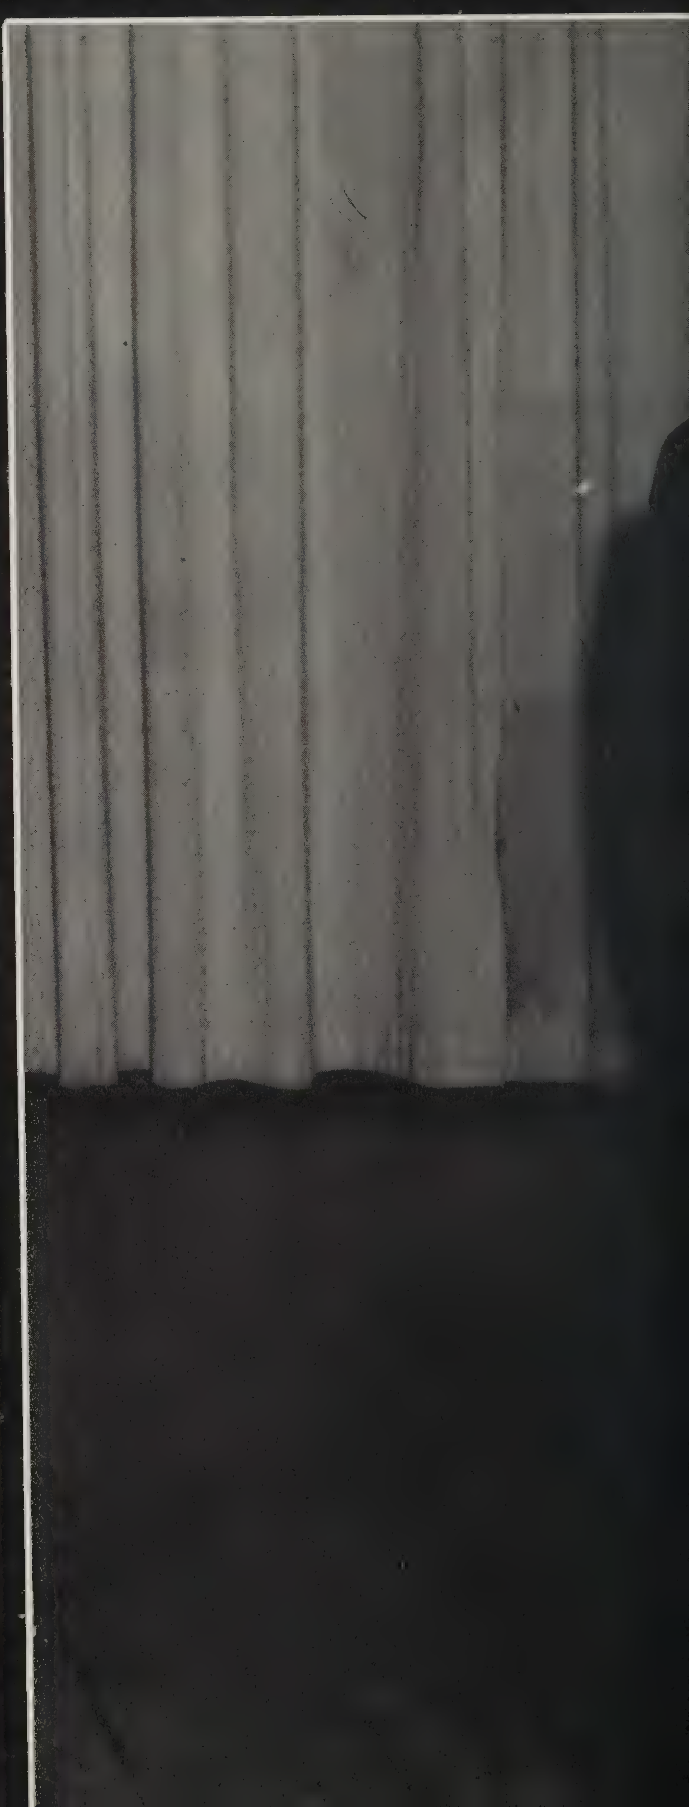
INTRODUCING THE

And, Alumni, this year, for the first time, the Seniors have a division page. We have the largest Senior Class, approximately 100, in the history of the school.

In addition to the Junior-Senior Prom, an annual social event, the Seniors gave a Christmas Dance, in honor of you, the Alumni. We hired an orchestra, which had never been done before by the other Senior classes. We also had a banquet, where each Senior received a little gift typical of himself. At the end of the year the school observed Senior Day, and we bade farewell to our friends and teachers. After these exercises we received a half-day holiday.



SENIORS

"Work, Wait, Win" Motto of Senior Class

"There Go The Grooms" Is Presented by Seniors

A three-act comedy, "There Go the Grooms," was presented by the Senior Class February 19 at 8 P.M. in the auditorium.

Jimmy Grow played the part of Gramp, a retired farmer and Shirley Bowman his spinster daughter, Minnie; Frances Ann Whitt as Suellen, his orphaned granddaughter. Others in the cast were: Janet Reams, Aunt Bea; Jean Garner, Honeybelle; Merle Crouch, Margie; Ryland Barden, Eustace; Billy Kronmeister, Bob; David Jolly, Pete and Ronald Turlington, Darryl.

Ryland Barden and Jean Garner rehearse for the play.

Billy Kronmeister, Shirley Bowman and David Jolly listen as Frances Ann Whitt reads a letter in a scene in the play.

Janet Reams

Jimmy Grow—Gramp, looks on as Jean Garner tries to win a rich boy friend—Ronald Turlington—who really loves Merle Crouch.

There Go The Grooms was written by Jay Tobias and directed by Mrs. Joan Smith and Miss Geraldine Kantner, senior sponsors. Proceeds from the play were used for a gift that the seniors presented to the school at commencement.

The two best students in the Senior Class
Are Laura Lu Green and Bobby Brown,
Around the encyclopedias and dictionaries
They can always be found.

Shirley Lee Southerland and Nelson Yarbrough
The two athletes of the class,
Have helped win many trophies,
And we bet this is not their last.

Principals in Poll

Here's Jackie Fennell and Clay Wheeles,
They are the wittiest seniors yet.
If Clay doesn't watch his step
Jackie's going to—he'll be all wet!

These two, Peggy Grubb and David Jolly,
Will always co-operate with you,
Whether it's hanging up dolls,
Or anything else you want them to do.

The girl and boy with al lthe mail
Are Jimmy Grow and Mary Call,
They are the most likely to succeed
Because they have plenty on the ball!

Laura Lu Green and David Jolly
Have their arms around the tree
To indicate they are the best all around
As anyone can plainly see.

Prove Playful, Purposeful

Here's Clara Hudson and Clay Wheeles,
The most talented of the class of '54.
With their playing and singing abilities,
Who could want or ask for more?

Mary Call needn't curl her hair
And Bobby Priest needn't fix his tie,
Because these two best-looking Seniors
Will always make the guys and gals sigh.

At last comes the walk that leads to a diploma.

Here we picture for you the three types of advertising used to finance our yearbook. The first window, on the top left, is a replica of page 121—a pictorial advertisement.

Display advertising, lower left, we feel creates less reader interest than any other. And the sponsored page is most beneficial, since we can use the page for school activities.

Advertisements realized one-half of the cost of the Memoir.

We hope you enjoy this Memoir, which we have published in your honor.

earn while you learn!

Your pay starts from the first day at the telephone company — even while you're learning your new job!

That's one reason so many young girls choose a telephone job when they finish school. They don't need experience to get this good job — and they're paid while they learn a skill that'll always be useful.

Find out more about the variety of telephone jobs from your high school counselor — or come in and see us when you finish school.

The Future Business Leaders of America were organized in February, too late to be included in the Activities section of the Memoir. In order to picture their organization, of which they are very proud, they purchased advertising space in the annual.

This club is the national organization for students in business education. FBLA is composed of active, associate, collegiate and honorary members.

Now is the time to build "... a sound mind in a sound body ..."

The formative years of youth can be your assurance of a happy, healthful, useful future. Don't forget, among the other things you've learned, that MILK is your most essential single food for health . . . and when it's VIRGINIA DAIRY MILK, DELICIOUS in the BARGAIN!

'The Home of Better Milk'' VIRGINIA DAIRY CO. 1810-16 W. Main Street
